

The Lavender Room – with en-suite shower room

A spacious relaxing room of 23m² with en-suite 5m² shower room. Accessed through a private entrance this room is situated in the oldest part of the house. Constructed centuries ago, this room is very quiet, faces east, has 1m thick exposed stone walls, hand hewed ancient oak beams, age-old handmade tiled ceilings and hand-made brick floor. With an independent entrance, views of the original terraced gardens, guests can come and go as they please.

Features - Peaceful, private and intimate * Not linked to any other guest accommodation * Large comfortable queen sized double bed * Comfortable pillows and designer bedding * Internal and external seating areas * Guests choice of “mood” lighting * Electric heating * Cooling fan * Numerous electrical points for ‘phone/pad charging * Hair dryer * Table top sized refrigerator with small integral freezer * Double glazed opening windows * Shower room has walk in shower, low level WC, low level bidet, marble surrounded porcelain sink within vanity unit *

Independent entrance and room view towards gardens and medieval town of Macerata

Internal views

Sorry no smoking in guest accommodation but permitted outside. We are also very sorry but our house is not suitable for children under 16 years or pets. Free parking on site. Iron available. Outside drying area. Picnic set available. 4/5G mobile coverage. Nearest free Wi-Fi 1.5km.