

The Rose Room – with adjoining private dressing/shower room

Barely 2 metres apart these two delightful rooms with independent entrances are accessed through a private loggia. The spacious cosy room is 16m² and adjoining private dressing/shower room is 7m². Constructed centuries ago, these rooms are very quiet, face east with views of the original terraced gardens, have 1m thick exposed stone walls, hand hewed ancient oak beams, age-old handmade tiled ceilings and tiled/stone floors. Guests can come and go as they please.
